Letter from the President & CEO

Dear Friends and Community Partners,

Spring has arrived! The Pony Bird staff and individuals have enjoyed getting back out into the warm weather and spending time with family members. Visitations are gradually resuming, and we are thrilled to welcome you back! Even though we are beginning to witness the proverbial light at the end of the tunnel, Pony Bird remains committed to the health and safety of every person we employ and serve.

In my last letter to you, I mentioned that COVID presented strategic opportunities for Pony Bird. We have learned a great deal. For example, we quickly recognized a need to transition our Day Services to an offsite location. Hosting our vital Day Service programs for members of the community beyond the walls of our homes ensures the health and safety of everyone we serve. I am excited to announce that we have identified a location and plan to re-open this month. We'll share more information about this as we move forward through other Pony Bird communications like CONNECT, our social media, and email.

Additionally, Pony Bird continues to make progress toward achieving the goals of our three-year strategic plan which was approved in 2019. We continue to explore opportunities to increase our capacity to serve individuals with disabilities. We are strengthening our mission by identifying efficiencies that empower us to do what we do even better. And we are diligently addressing a critical workforce crisis for direct support professionals upon whom we rely for the daily, quality care for which Pony Bird is best known.

We continue to explore opportunities to increase our capacity to serve individuals with disabilities.

We could not accomplish our mission without the support of individuals, community partners, and the many stakeholders who are as committed to this work as we are. Thank you for walking alongside us through the uncertainty of a pandemic and empowering us to continue building toward a brighter future.

In partnership,

Sara Sucharski, President & CEO

Santriel and Misty not only stayed safe during COVID, they had a lot of laughs with staff.

Community Showcase

Community Partners

United Way Partnership leads to New Connections

Earlier this year, Pony Bird announced that we are a new United Way Safety Net Partner! Not only does this mean United Way invests collaborative funding toward our programs and services, but we are now empowered with more network connections and resources than ever before. One such critical connection is the Regional Response Team (RRT) which was formed in response to the COVID-19 pandemic. They convene donations, volunteers, and material resources to distribute throughout the region to organizations just like Pony Bird.

Pony Bird received more than 600 gowns to supplement vital PPE for our employees. RRT strengthened our ability to maintain our commitment to the health and safety of every individual we serve and the staff heroes who provide those services each and every day.

Community Giving

Arnold Rotary Club has generously supported Pony Bird for many years! Through their gifts, our local Rotary is fulfilling their mission to “provide humanitarian service, encourage high ethical standards in all vocations, and help build goodwill and peace in the world.”

Pony Bird is proud to call

Arnold Rotary Club a community partner. Thank you for making a difference!

The awesome students and teachers at Valle Catholic High School spruced up our landscaping at Pony Bird. Many thanks to our volunteers who make great things happen here. We appreciate you!

Shout out to Walmart Supercenter High Ridge for making a difference for individuals with disabilities. They championed a gift to Pony Bird through Walmart’s Community Grant program demonstrating their support for the local community!

Ursula and Scott of Walmart Supercenter High Ridge.

Pony Bird’s 14th Annual Great Taste has evolved over the years thanks to sponsors, area restaurants, donors, volunteers, and committee members making it our largest and most profitable fundraiser. Due to Covid restrictions, we moved this year’s Taste to a virtual environment raising over $62,000.00. This year’s guest experience included raffles, live and silent auctions and an option to purchase a Great Taste Club card. The Great Taste Club card was a success in replacing lost ticket revenue and helped support area restaurants. This year definitely had it’s challenge, but thanks to committee members, volunteers, participants, and sponsors, Pony Bird’s Great Taste was a virtual victory for 2021. THANK YOU!

Foundation Partners

Charter Spectrum gives back to their local communities through their Spectrum Employee Community Grants. This year they provided Pony Bird with a grant for basic needs and critical health supports to the individuals we serve.

Pony Bird volunteer and Sr. Director at Charter, Chris Robles, nominated Andrea Wolf, Director of Operations.

Episcopal Presbyterian Health Trust

Did you know that our medical services are the cornerstone of what makes us unique? Where else can you find comprehensive programming that supports the social, mental, physical, emotional, and medical needs of individuals? Unfortunately, this critical service is our least funded. But this year the Episcopal Presbyterian Health Trust stepped up with their first grant to Pony Bird to support our medical services.

Community partners, like Episcopal Presbyterian Health Trust, strengthen resources to ensure Pony Bird’s vital and unique services continue.

ON MISSION with Outdoor Adventures

Special Olympics "Reveals the Athlete in All of Us"

Pony Bird is proud to partner with Special Olympics Missouri. In alignment with Pony Bird's mission, Special Olympics provides year-round sports training and athletic competition for children and adults with intellectual, physical, and developmental disabilities. Pony Bird also wants every individual to have opportunities to experience joy, develop fitness, spend time with friends, and experience community. Our athletes were ready to resume competition. Here are a few photos from the day!

Melissa Podorski, Medication Aide, makes sure Ellen is staying warm between her olympic events.

Mapaville and DeSoto Fun Days

Pony Bird staff are known for their creativity. To ensure the days are filled with laughter, engagement, and fun they come up with all sorts of activities to support the social, mental, and physical health of the individuals we serve. This Spring, staff members from both Mapaville and DeSoto locations joined forces to create an outdoor water sports extravaganza. Unicorns spraying water, water gun games, and circus themed decorations ensured that every individual would get out to play. Fun Days are a Pony Bird tradition. Usually scheduled when the days are getting hotter, this is a chance for everyone to get outside in the sun and enjoy the company of their friends.

Looking Forward

Strengthening Our Mission

The Pegasus Society

The Board of Directors and Staff Leadership faithfully explore opportunities to ensure our services are offered well into the future. In 2019, we approved a three-year strategic plan that will help us build toward the future – exploring ways to increase our capacity and the scope of our services throughout the region. While we are hard at work ensuring our mission continues, you can play a part too!

Consider a planned gift to Pony Bird. As you make estate plans or are simply being a good steward of the resources you have, consider including Pony Bird. A gift to Pony Bird from your retirement account, life insurance, or even gifts of real estate can ensure that Pony Bird's mission continues well into the future. This can help your heirs avoid unsightly taxes too!

continuing the legacy

A gift of $10,000 or more inducts you into Pony Bird's Pegasus Society – a group of individuals committed to ensuring the continuity of our services. Pegasus Society members also enjoy an annual event designed to express our sincere appreciation.

To learn more contact Jennifer Adams, Director of Development, at 636-931-5818 or by email at jadams@ponybird.org

In January 2020, Pony Bird launched an Advocacy Committee. This group of passionate and committed people work throughout the year to ensure legislative policies and budgets reflect a state-wide commitment to individuals with disabilities. So far this year they've made a big difference. Speaking with legislators about the need for rate standardization for organizations like Pony Bird resulted in an increase of revenue dollars for our services. Rate standardization ensures that Pony Bird has the resources to attract and retain quality employees who are critical to supporting and fulfilling our mission.

Additionally, Day Program support was increased by 5%. And while these successes are amazing there's still work to be done throughout the community.

Jennifer appreciates the support that she gets from one of her advocates, Jessica Schnwalbert, H.R. Coordinator.

The more people know about Pony Bird, the larger our community. Communities are stronger when they work together.

If you would like to learn more about the Advocacy Committee or would simply like to subscribe to our Advocacy E-Newsletter, Pony Bird CONNECT, contact Jennifer Adams, Director of Development, at 636-931-5818 or by email at jadams@ponybird.org.

Day Services to Relaunch

As many of you know, Pony Bird was required to shutter Day Services during the pandemic. Our Day Services provide engaging opportunities for individuals with disabilities to increase independence, strengthen their physical and mental health, improve communication skills, and empower choice through decision making. Day Services allow individuals to foster a sense of self-respect and self-worth, focusing on the ability and not the disability.

Earlier this year, we identified a new location to host our Day Programs and will be re-launching this month. We're excited to connect with the community again and offer these vital programs. Stay tuned for more information in the upcoming month.
